Bansilal's train was late and it reached Mumbai a little after midnight. It was his first visit to the city, and he didn't know where to go. He thought he would go to a chawl where he would not have to pay rent, but he did not know how to find one at that hour. He asked a porter to get him a cheap room. The porter said that if Bansilal gave him three rupees, he would take him to one. But Bansilal waved him away and walked out of the station. He wandered through the streets and asked a number of people but could not find a room cheap enough for him. He sat down on a park bench to think of what he should do next. He was very tired and fell asleep on the bench. He woke up the next morning stiff in every limb -but he smiled when he realized that it was the cheapest night's lodging that he had ever had.

Questions :

1. Why did Bansilal think he would go to a chawl?
2. What did the porter say to Bansilal?
3. What did Bansilal do in the park?
4. Did he plan to sleep on the bench?
